

Music & Words are a series of events combining choral music from the Inter Alios Choir with poetry and a short address on a topic pertinent to the human experience. They take place fortnightly on Sundays at 5:45pm in term time in the Fellows' Drawing Room at Murray Edwards College. Entry is free, refreshments are provided and everyone is welcome. Our theme this term is Mind & Body.

Michaelmas 2019: Mind & Body

27 October Fear (a Halloween special)

Address: Dr Emma Cahill (Dept. of Physiology, Development and Neuroscience)

Faure	Requiem (extracts)
Mozart	Dies Irae
Ella Fitzgerald	Ding Dong the witch is dead

10 November Anxiety and Performance

Address: Prof Chris Huang (Medicine and Psychology)

Purcell	Man that is born of woman
Purcell	Remember not, Lord, our offences
Rebecca Clarke	Weep no more, sad fountains
Purcell	Dido's Lament

24 November Do we really observe the world, or just guess it?

Address: Prof Chris Huang (Dept. of Clinical Neuroscience)

Purcell	Evening Hymn
Parry	I know my soul hath power to know all things
Nina Simone	Feeling Good

If you are interested in contributing to the series either as a member of the choir, a reader of poetry or even being involved with the organisation and curating of the events please contact Director of Music, Ewan Campbell: eahc2:@cam.ac.uk

INTER
ALIOS

